JANE AND JOHN

a lot – много

classmate – одноклассник

Suddenly she sinks. – Вдруг она тонет.

after – после

now – сейчас

Jane is eleven. She is a short girl. She has got long fair hair and big blue eyes. She is nice. Jane is a good pupil. She is clever; she reads a lot.

Jane has got a classmate, John. John is a tall boy. He has got short dark hair and brown eyes. John likes sport. He plays basketball and tennis. He is a good footballer. He can swim very well, too. But John is a bad pupil. He is naughty at the lessons. He doesn't listen to the teacher. He doesn't like to read. He doesn't want to do homework. He is lazy.

One day Jane, John and their classmates go to the swimming pool. But Jane can't swim well. Suddenly she sinks. John helps Jane. Then he teaches her to swim. Jane is happy.

After the swimming pool Jane helps John to do homework. She is a kind girl and she wants John to be a good pupil.

Jane and John are good friends now.

AT THE ZOO

holidays – каникулы

grandchildren – внуки

Steve and Helen live in Great Britain. They are pupils and go to school on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

It is Wednesday today. But the children don't go to school. They have holidays. So the children get up at nine o'clock. They make their beds. Then they do their morning exercises, wash their faces and brush teeth. After that they have breakfast. Steve drinks coffee and eats sandwiches. Helen drinks tea with milk and eats porridge.

At eleven o'clock the children go to the zoo with their granny. They can see red foxes and white bears, brown monkeys and grey elephants, yellow lions and green crocodiles; purple, pink and blue parrots.

Helen likes monkeys. They are funny. They can run, jump and climb trees.

Steve likes white bears. They are very big. They can swim very well.

The children's granny likes the zoo, too. She likes to watch her grandchildren.
